Illinois Benefits from Exports!

Manufactured goods exports are the strongest part of Illinois' economy even though Illinois and other states export only half as much of their production as the world average. America's exports and the related jobs could double if Congress passes strong pro-export legislation.

- Manufactured exports support 25 percent of Illinois' manufacturing jobs.
- Since 2003, Illinois manufacturing exports rose more than three times as fast as the state's overall economy.
- 90 percent of Illinois exporters are small businesses (2009).
- Illinois exported $23.3 billion of manufactured goods to Free Trade Agreement (FTA) partner countries in 2010 – 51 percent of Illinois' total.
