Georgia Benefits from Exports!

Manufactured goods exports are the strongest part of Georgia's economy even though Georgia and other states export only half as much of their production as the world average. America's exports and the related jobs could double if Congress passes strong pro-export legislation.

- Manufactured exports support 18 percent of Georgia's manufacturing jobs.
- Since 2003, Georgia manufacturing exports rose three times as fast as the state's overall economy.
- 87 percent of Georgia exporters are small businesses (2009).
- Georgia exported $9.4 billion of manufactured goods to Free Trade Agreement (FTA) partner countries in 2010 — 36 percent of Georgia's total.
