New Hampshire Benefits from Exports!

Manufactured goods exports are the strongest part of New Hampshire's economy even though New Hampshire and other states export only half as much of their production as the world average. America's exports and the related jobs could double if Congress passes strong pro-export legislation.

- Manufactured exports support 23 percent of New Hampshire's manufacturing jobs.
- Since 2003, New Hampshire manufacturing exports rose nearly six times as fast as the state's overall economy.
- 88 percent of New Hampshire exporters are small businesses (2009).
- New Hampshire exported $1.8 billion of manufactured goods to Free Trade Agreement (FTA) partner countries in 2010 — 43 percent of New Hampshire's total.
