ECONOMY AND EXPORTS
Trade is important for Mississippi, helping Mississippians sell more of what they make to more customers around the world. More sales equal more well-paying jobs and a stronger economy across the state. Mississippi’s ability to sell more American-made products to Canada and Mexico is tied directly to tariff-free and rules-based trade in North America.

Canada and Mexico purchase nearly one-third of Mississippi’s total global manufacturing exports

Mississippi Without the U.S.–Mexico–Canada Trade Agreement: Less Manufacturing and Fewer Jobs

Without tariff-free trade across North America secured by a strong trade agreement, Mississippi’s manufactured goods exports to Canada and Mexico could face a minimum of $106 million to $471 million in extra taxes (compared to zero tariffs today).

As a result, many of Mississippi’s manufacturers and the workers and communities they support would lose sales as competitors from Europe and Asia continue to enjoy zero tariffs. The result would be less manufacturing production and fewer well-paying American jobs in Mississippi and throughout the United States.

Congressional passage of the United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement will help Mississippi manufacturers grow in the United States, compete globally and support millions of well-paying manufacturing jobs across the country.
