The Manufacturers’ Center for Legal Action:
The Voice of Manufacturing in the Courts

The Manufacturers’ Center for Legal Action (MCLA) is the leading voice for manufacturers in the courts. The MCLA works to rein in regulatory overreach, protects our hard-fought legislative gains and ensure a level playing field for manufacturers. Through direct challenges to regulations and amicus support in key cases in the areas of labor, environment, product liability, corporate governance, intellectual property and international law, the MCLA provides a vital backstop to the anti-manufacturing regulatory agenda.
